ORDER

New Delhi, the 31st July, 1959

G.S.R. 913.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Inter-State Corporations Act, 1957 (38 of 1957), the Central Government after consulting the Governments of the States of Bombay, Mysore and Rajasthan, approves with certain modifications, the scheme forwarded by the Government of Bombay relating to the reconstitution and reorganisation of the Secondary School Certificate Examination Board a Corporation constituted under the Bombay Secondary School Certificate Examination Act, 1948 (Bombay Act XLIX of 1948) and functioning in parts of the States of Bombay, Mysore and Rajasthan, and for the purpose of giving effect to the scheme so approved, the Central Government hereby makes the following Order, namely:—

1. Short title.—This Order may be called the Bombay Secondary School Certificate Examination Board (Reconstitution) Order, 1959.

2 Definitions.—In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "Abu area" means the Abu Road taluka of Banaskantha district transferred from the former State of Bombay to the State of Rajasthan.
- (b) "Act" means the Bombay Secondary School Certificate Examination Act, 1948 (Bom. Act XLIX of 1948);
- (c) "appointed day" means the 15th day of August, 1959;

- (d) "Bombay area" means the territories which immediately before the 1st day of November 1956, were comprised in the State of Bombay, excluding the Karnatak area and the Abu area;
- (e) "existing Corporation" means the Secondary School Certificate Examination Board constituted under the Act and functioning and operating immediately before the appointed day in the areas of the former State of Bombay;
- (f) "Karnatak area" means the Bijapur, Dharwar and Kanara districts, and the Belgaum district (excluding the Chandgad taluka) transferred from the former State of Bombay to the State of Mysore.

3. Exclusion of certain areas from the operation of the existing Corporation.—As from the appointed day, the existing Corporation shall cease to function and operate in the Karnatak area and the Abu area and shall be deemed to have been constituted for the Bombay area.

4 Recovery of outstanding fees, charges, contributions and other dues.—The right to recover fees, charges, contributions and other moneys which immediately before the appointed day were due or payable to the existing Corporation, and remain unpaid on that day shall continue to be with the existing Corporation.

5. Dead stock and other goods and cash balances to continue to vest in the existing Corporation.—(1) The dead stock, stores and articles of stationery and other goods of whatsoever kind and wherever situated which immediately before the appointed day belonged to the existing Corporations shall continue to vest in, and be the property of, the existing Corporation.

(2) The securities, if any, and the cash balances held by the existing Corporation in Bank or Treasury or Sub-Treasury immediately before the appointed day shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 6, continue to be held by, and vest in, the existing Corporation.

6. Apportionment of the Fund of the existing Corporation.—The balance standing to the credit of the Fund of the existing Corporation maintained under section 25 of the Act, on the 31st December 1957 and struck after deducting all liabilities of that Fund up to that date including the liabilities arising out of, or in connection with, any Secondary School Certificate Examination held before that date, shall be divided amongst the Government of Mysore, the Government of Rajasthan and the existing Corporation in the ratio which the number of candidates registered at the Secondary School Certificate Examinations held during the period from March 1949 upto and inclusive of October, 1957 from the recognised high schools situated in the Karnatak area, the Abu area and the Bombay area bear respectively to the total number of candidates registered at the said examinations.

7. Residuary provision.—The benefit or burden of any assets or liabilities of the existing Corporation not dealt with in the foregoing paragraphs shall continue to be the benefit or burden of the existing Corporation.

8. Provision relating to employees.—All officers and servants who, immediately before the appointed day, were serving under the existing Corporation shall, as from the appointed day, be deemed to have been allotted to serve in connection with the affairs of the State of Bombay and continue to serve under the existing Corporation on the same terms and conditions, until duly varied by the State Government, subject to the proviso to sub-section (7) of section 115 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956 (37 of 1956).

9. Legal proceedings.—Where immediately before the appointed day, the existing Corporation is a party to any legal proceedings with respect to any property, rights or liabilities subject to apportionment under this Order, the existing Corporation shall continue to be a party to those proceedings, and the proceedings continued accordingly.

10. Adaptations and modifications in the Act.—As from the appointed day, the Act shall, until altered, repealed or amended by the competent Legislature of the State have effect subject to the modifications specified in the Schedule hereto annexed.

THE SCHEDULE

G.S.R. 917.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 43B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878) and section 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944) (both as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry), and in supersession of the Customs Duties Drawback (Fixed Rates) Rules, 1958, the Customs Duties Drawback (Brand Rates) Rules, 1958, the Customs and Central Excise Duties Refund (Fixed Rates) Rules, 1958 and the Customs and Central Excise Duties Refund (Brand Rates) Rules, 1958, the Central Government hereby makes the following rules the same having been previously published as required under the said sub-section (3) of section 43B, namely:—

THE CUSTOMS AND CENTRAL EXCISE DUTIES EXPORT DRAWBACK
(GENERAL) RULES, 1959

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs and Central Excise Duties Export Drawback (General) Rules, 1959.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) “excisable materials” means materials produced or manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry, on which central excise duty has been paid;
- (b) “export” includes shipment of the goods as provisions or stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port;
- (c) “goods” means any of the articles specified in the First or the Second Schedule, which are manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry, and in the manufacture of which imported or excisable materials or both have been used;
- (d) “imported materials” means materials imported into India or the State of Pondicherry, on payment of customs duty;

- (e) "manufacturer" means a manufacturer of the goods;
- (f) "drawback" includes drawback of customs duty paid on imported materials and rebate of central excise duty paid on excisable materials;
- (g) "Schedule" means a Schedule appended to these rules.

3. Goods in respect of which drawback may be paid.—Subject to the provisions of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878) and of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944) and of these rules, and subject also to such provisions of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, as may be applicable in this behalf, a drawback at the rate or rates determined in accordance with rule 4 or rule 5, shall be allowed of the customs duty paid on the imported materials, and the central excise duty paid on the excisable materials, used in the manufacture of the goods exported from India or the State of Pondicherry:

Provided that no such drawback shall be allowed if such goods have been taken into use after manufacture.

4. Rate of drawback in respect of goods specified in the First Schedule.—(1) Drawback admissible under these rules in respect of any goods specified in the second column of the First Schedule shall be at the rate or rates specified against such goods in the corresponding entry in the third column of the said Schedule.

(2) The Central Government may revise the rate or rates of drawback so specified at such intervals as it thinks fit, and for this purpose, may require any manufacturer of any variety or brand of the goods to furnish information in such form as it may prescribe, particularly in respect of the materials used in the manufacture of such brand or variety and the customs or the central excise duty, if any, paid thereon.

5. Rate of drawback in respect of goods specified in the Second Schedule.—(1) Drawback admissible under these rules in respect of each variety or brand of the goods specified in the Second Schedule shall be the total of the average customs duty paid on the imported materials, and the average central excise duty paid on the excisable materials, used in the manufacture of the goods.

(2) Such averages shall be determined, on application by the manufacturer, by the Central Government on the basis of information furnished by the manufacturer in respect of the materials used in the manufacture of the goods and the customs or the central excise duty, if any, paid on such materials, during such period as in the opinion of the Central Government is relevant for the purpose.

(3) Such information shall be furnished by the manufacturer in such form as the Central Government may prescribe in any particular case, and shall be subject to such verification as the Central Government may deem necessary in any particular case.

(4) The Central Government may revise the rate or rates of drawback so determined for any variety or brand of the goods at such intervals as it thinks fit, and for this purpose, may require any manufacturer to furnish information in such form as it may prescribe, particularly in respect of the materials used in the manufacture of such brand or variety and the customs or excise duty, if any, paid thereon. If such information is not furnished and facilities for its verification are not provided, by the manufacturer within such period as may be specified by the Central Government, the Central Government may deny drawback in respect of shipments made, of such variety or brand of the goods after the expiry of the said period.

6. Effective date for application of rate of drawback.—The rate of drawback applicable to any goods exported shall be the rate in force on the date, as defined in Section 38 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), on which the shipping bill for such goods is delivered under Section 137 of that Act.

7. Drawback inadmissible unless rate determined before exportation.—Except as provided in rule 8, no goods which are exported shall be entitled to drawback under these Rules unless prior to their exportation, the Central Government has determined the rate or rates of drawback for such goods.

8. Facility for shipment under provisional claims.—(1) If it appears to the Central Government that the process of determination of a rate or rates of drawback in respect of any particular goods may take some time, the Central Government may, pending the determination of such rate or rates, insert, by notification in the Official Gazette, the description of such goods in the First or the Second Schedule, and when the description has been so inserted, the Central Government may, on a request in writing from any intending exporter of such goods, and subject to such conditions as it may prescribe in this behalf, permit export of such goods to be made in accordance with the procedure laid down in rule 9, but under provisional claim for drawback.

(2) Subject to the satisfactory identification of the goods shipped, and to the due observance by the exporter, of the prescribed procedures, such provisional claims shall be settled at such rate or rates as may be ultimately determined by the Central Government.

(3) In any case where permission has been granted under sub-rule (1) for export to be made under provisional claim for drawback, such permission shall not be construed as any guarantee that the claim will be finally admitted and paid by the Customs Collector.

9. Exporter's declarations and documents.—At the time of the export of the goods, the exporter shall,—

- (a) make a declaration on the relative shipping bill that a claim for drawback under these rules is being made;
- (b) state on the shipping bill, the description, quantity and such other particulars as are necessary for deciding whether the goods are entitled to drawback, and if so, at what rate or rates; and
- (c) furnish the Customs Collector with a copy of the shipment invoice or any other document giving particulars of the description, quantity and value of the goods to be exported.

10. Certain conditions to govern drawback.—No drawback shall be allowed under these rules in respect of any goods unless—

- (i) the goods are included in the export manifest of the vessel by which the goods are shipped; and
- (ii) payment of drawback is demanded within six months from the date of entry for shipment.

11. Powers of Customs Collector.—For the purpose of rules 4 and 5 of these rules, the Customs Collector may require the manufacturer to produce any books of account or other documents relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported and excisable materials used in the manufacture of the goods and the customs and central excise duty paid thereon.

12. Access to manufactory.—Whenever the Chief Customs Officer or the Chief Customs Authority considers it necessary, the manufacturer shall give access at all reasonable times to any officer of the Central Government specially authorized in this behalf by such officer or such authority, to every part of the premises in which the goods are manufactured, so as to enable the officer so authorized to verify by inspection of the processes of, and the materials used for, the manufacture of such goods, or otherwise, the entitlement of the goods for drawback or for a particular rate of drawback, under these rules.
